

The Department of Labor released its revised rule to update the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) and making...

The final rule will raise the annual salary threshold for an exempt employee to $47,476—less than the proposed rule's $50,440, but more than double the old threshold.

The salary threshold will be updated every 3 years and employers must implement the rule by Dec. 1, 2018.

Dec 1, 2018 is the date that employers must comply with the new regulations.

The salary threshold will be updated every 3 years to keep up with inflation. Based on our growth projections, the threshold is expected to rise to $50,440 in 2019.
